

Lindisfarne: The Saints that are Gone

Adapted from the Skye Boat Song, Sir Harold Boulton, Bt., 1884
Revised lyrics by Lew Toulmin, 2019; www.themosttraveled.com; waltz DUU

Intro: C Am G C

CHORUS:

[C] Sing me a [Am] song of the [Dm] Saints that are [G] gone.
[C] Onward, the [F] searchers [C] cry! [G]
[C] Sacred their [Am] souls [Dm] flew in the [G] dawn,
[C] over the [F] sea and [C] sky. [G]

[Am] Billow and breeze, [Dm] islands and seas, [Am] skies full of [F] rain and [Am] sun
[Am] All that was good, [Dm] all that was fair, [Am] all of our [F] Saints -- are [Am] gone.

CHORUS

[Am] Far back in time, [Dm] found task sublime: [Am] build for [F] the soul of [Am] man,
[Am] A new house of [Dm] God, next to the rime. [Am] Can they [F] complete their [Am] plan?

CHORUS

[Am] By Aidan's hand, [Dm] in Oswald's land, [Am] what is [F] their final [Am] fate?
[Am] Great Gospels writ, [Dm] by candles lit, [Am] will it all [F] end in [Am] hate? CHORUS

[Am] On Holy Isle, [Dm] our Lord did smile, [Am] and the Saints [F] grew in [Am] fame.
[Am] Fasting and prayer, [Dm] for the people did care, [Am] and every [F] one knew their [Am] name. CHORUS

[Am] Eadfrith and Finan, [Dm] Aidan and Colman, [Am] Tuda and [F] Oswald [Am] too,
[Am] Will Viking's ire, [Dm] with sword and fire, [Am] end such [F] a tale so [Am] true? CHORUS

[Am] With trowel and trench, [Dm] even if drenched, [Am] now seekers [F] they dig for [Am] truth,
[Am] Our leading whizz, [Dm] with geo-phiz, [Am] David Petts is [F] our Saintly [Am] sleuth! CHORUS

[Am] Give me again, [Dm] all that I prize! [Am] Give me those [F] Saints that [Am] shone.
[Am] God help me try, [Dm] before I die, [Am] to find me their [F] Saintly [Am] home! CHORUS

[Am] Saint Cuthbert's fold, [Dm] and Aethelwold's, [Am] sought for [F] by Durham's [Am] men.
[Am] Missing for-e'er, [Dm] but do not despair, [Am] it will be [F] found [Am] again! CHORUS