

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE, REDUX

By Llewellyn "Lew" Toulmin
2002 and 2023
Borrowing on the Original Verse and Chorus
by Gilbert and Sullivan

D With cat-like tread
G Upon our prey we D steal
In silence dread, our
A7 cautious way we D feel.
No sound at all, we
G never speak a D word,
A D6 fly's foot fall
Would be E distinctly A heard!

CHORUS:

D Come, friends, who plough the sea,
A7 Truce to navigation
Take another station.
D7 Let's vary piracee
A With a little A burglar- D ee!*

D To London's bower
G Now we all shall D sneak.
Into the Tower
A7 We shall take a D peek.
We'll steal no fakes
G It is a little D cruel
D6 What shall we take?
Why, the E British Crown A Jewels!

CHORUS

D Beefeaters will
G Try to halt our D crime.
We'll hold them still
A7 By asking them the D time.
Then a bop on the head,
G They'll crash to the D floor,
D6 Now they're in bed
We're E at the golden A door! CHORUS

D We'll take the key
G From our sleeping D friend.
Now we'll see
A7 Our theft through to the D end.
The doors open wide
G Edward's crown looks D fine
D6 They cannot hide.
These E Jewels are A mine!

CHORUS

D I look so sleek
G In Lizzie's crown D divine
With class I reek
A7 My diamond earrings D shine.
The crime scene we'll leave
G But a pirate ship's for D rubes
D6 No need to grieve --
We'll simply E take the A Tube!

CHORUS

D Now we've done
G This world's greatest D crime
What more fun
A7 Can we have in our D time?
Our next spree
G Will settle all our D fates
D6 We'll steal the key
To the E Pearly A Gates!
