

The Patriot's Game

by Liam Clancy

[Intro] G C G D G

G C G D G
Come all ye young rebels, and list while I sing,
D G D G
For love of one's country t'is a terrible thing.
D G D C
It banishes fear like the speed of a flame
G C G D G
And it makes you all a part of the patriot's game.

G C G D G
My name is O'Hanlon, I've just gone sixteen.
D G D G
My home is in Monaghan, and there I was weaned.
D G D C
I've been told all my life, cruel England to blame,
G C G D G
So now I'm a part of the patriot's game.

G C G D G
'Tis barely two years since I wandered away
D G D G
With the local battalion of the bold I-R-A,
D G D C
I've read of our heroes, I've wanted the same,
G C G D G
For to play out my part in the patriot's game.

G C G D G
This Ireland of ours has for long been half-free;
D G D G
Six counties are under John Bull's tyranny.
D G D C
And most of our leaders are greatly to blame
G C G D G
For shirking their part in the patriot's game.

G C G D G
They told me how Connolly was shot in his chair,
D G D G
The wounds from his battle all bleeding and bare.
D G D C
His fine body twisted, all tattered and lame
G C G D G
They soon made me part of, the patriot's game.

G C G D G
And now I am dying, my body all holes,
D G D G
I think of those traitors who bargained and sold.
D G D C
I'm sorry my rifle has not done the same
G C G D G
To the quislings who sold out, the patriot's game.
